

Table of contents

Introduction	7
1. The essence and specificity of soft power and transnational civil society organisations ..	17
1.1. The essence and specificity of soft power in international relations	17
1.1.1. The concept of power in international relations	17
1.1.2. The concept of soft power	27
1.1.3. The transformation of power in international relations	35
1.2. The essence and specificity of transnational civil society organisations	43
1.2.1. The concept of transnational civil society organisations	43
1.2.2. The specificity of transnational civil society organisations	56
2. Transnational civil society organisations as soft power entities	71
2.1. Conditions for the development of transnational civil society organisations	71
2.2. The essence and specificity of transnational civil society organisations' soft power ..	81
2.2.1. Soft power resources	81
2.2.2. Soft power mechanisms	97
2.3. The accountability problem of transnational civil society organisations	102
3. Forms of soft power implementation by transnational civil society organisations	115
3.1. Transnational network-organised coalitions	115
3.1.1. Transnational advocacy networks	117
3.1.2. Epistemic communities	126
3.2. Participation in the "new diplomacy"	131
3.2.1. Consultative status with international organisations	134
3.2.2. "Parallel Summits"	143
4. Case studies on the soft power of transnational civil society organisations	155
4.1. The scope and motives of transnational civil society organisations' activities	156
4.2. The sphere of human rights	165
4.2.1. The coalition to create an International Criminal Court	165
4.2.2. The international campaign to ban landmines	180
4.2.3. The coalition against cluster weapons	189
4.3. The sphere of ecology	201
4.3.1. The participation of transnational civil society organisations in the adoption of the Kyoto Protocol to the UN Framework Convention on Climate Change	201
4.3.2. The campaign against genetically modified organisms (GMOs)	215
4.4. The sphere of economics	225
4.4.1. The campaign against the multilateral agreement on investment (MAI)	225
4.4.2. The international campaign for the taxation of foreign exchange transactions	231

4.5. The effectiveness and implementation of transnational civil society organisations' soft power	238
5. Soft power perspectives for transnational civil society organisations	247
5.1. The “expansion of transnational civil society organisations” scenario	247
5.2. The “decline of transnational civil society organisations' soft power” scenario	250
5.3. The “sustainable development of transnational civil society organisations' soft power” scenario	253
End	257
Bibliography	261
List of Abbreviations	278
Charts Index	281
List of Tables	282
List of Figures	283